

PUBLIC VIDEO SCREENING LICENCE FOR SCHOOLS: DECLARATION OF NON-REQUIREMENT

Please ensure that you read all the information available within the Licensing & Public Video Screening Licence section of www.cefm.co.uk and if you are certain that your school makes no non-curricular use of film, please sign and return this declaration form.

If you have any further queries regarding the scope of the PVS licence please contact a member of the helpline team to discuss your school's individual requirements. You can call us on 01494 836 231 or email pvsl@cefm.co.uk

What The Licence Allows You To Do

The Public Video Screening Licence allows schools to show domestically rented or bought films on video or DVD for entertainment purposes. Activities covered under this licence include:

- End of term treats;
- Wet break time alternatives;
- After school clubs;
- Breakfast clubs.

Any infringement of copyright can be pursued by the copyright holder and could result in civil proceedings.

Your school's invoice/licence will not be cancelled until a signed declaration is received.
